The logo for ADFAR Engineering Services is displayed on a solid orange rectangular background. The word "ADFAR" is written in a large, bold, white, serif font. Below it, the words "ENGINEERING SERVICES" are written in a smaller, white, serif font, all in uppercase letters.

ADFAR Engineering Services started when the ADORNO Fathers from Rome, Italy, decided to put-up a seminary in Vinzons, Camarines Norte. It was a leap of faith for both the young proprietor and the ADORNO congregation.

The proprietor left his day-job, risking losing monthly paychecks to learning the curves of project management and construction with no guarantees for success. The ADORNO fathers, entrusting their first structure to a rookie. Coupled with faith, people skills, and persistence the ADORNO Seminary was successfully built. To honor the blessing of God, the proprietor named his company after the religious congregation ADornoFatheRs.
